

Name	Award	Details	How to Apply
THE TERRY AND LAURIE SANFORD FAMILY FELLOWSHIP	Full Tuition & Fees & Living Stipend	The Sanford Family Fellowship honors student leaders with outstanding commitments to addressing public policy disparities affecting predominantly underserved communities	Automatically Considered. Students will be considered based on their academic credentials and demonstrated interest in focusing on challenges that underserved communities face in contemporary society.
THE ARMENIAN FELLOWSHIP FUND	Whole/Partial	Students interested in sustainable development, nation building, or conflict resolution in Armenia and/or the surrounding region may receive whole or partial fellowships	Upload a separate statement describing interest in Armenia or the surrounding region and their professional goals
THE DUKE-MARGOLIS SCHOLARSHIP IN HEALTH POLICY & MANAGEMENT	Varies	For applicants who have strong interest in health policy or have experience in the health field. Scholars are linked with the world-class experts and leading-edge research on the Duke University campus and in Washington, DC. Margolis Scholars participate in consulting projects, a summer internship, skills training, and have opportunities to interact with policymakers and health policy thought leaders.	Automatically Considered. Have evidenced an interest in health policy through current research, related internships, work experience, extracurricular activities. Indicate a strong interest in taking advanced health management and policy courses. Have demonstrated a clear intention of pursuing a career in health care research, delivery, management, or policy following graduation.
THE HELEN F. "SUNNY" LADD FELLOWSHIP IN EDUCATION POLICY	Full Tuition & Fees & Living Stipend	Top applicants with a strong background and interest in education. About Helen F. "Sunny" Ladd	In addition to the standard MPP application, applicants should prepare a brief statement of interest (2-page maximum) detailing your interest in the Ladd Fellowship and how it will benefit you, including previous education policy experience, key areas or topics of interest, and future professional goals and direction